Gabriel Sarah, MD.

Pediatric Anesthesiologist, University of California, San Francisco (UCSF)

Gabriel Sarah, MD is an Associate Clinical Professor in the Department of Anesthesia and Perioperative Care at UCSF.

As an educator, Dr. Sarah serves in many roles. Within undergraduate medical education, he serves as a Bridges Coach and as a Bridges Curriculum Topic Curator where he develops and guides the development of curriculum. He has special interest in curriculum related to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, including curriculum focused on race, gender, and LGBTQ+ health.

In graduate medical education, Dr. Sarah is the Associate Residency Program Director for Guidance and Development for the Anesthesia Residency Program at UCSF. He has specific interest in mentorship and sponsorship, professionalism and professional development for residents, and diversity in residency.

Dr. Sarah attends clinically mainly as a pediatric anesthesiologist at the UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital. He also provides pain management services to children. On occasion, you can find him in an operating room at Mt. Zion.
